

Saturday, September 24, 2011 and Sunday, September 25, 2011

Our annual Leif Eiriksson Weekend will kick off with our Dinner on Saturday, September 24th. Our menu will include turkey, ham and perogies along with all the delicious food we are accustomed to enjoying from our caterer. We have invited Iceland's Ambassador to Canada, Sigríður Anna Þórðardóttir, and are hopeful that she and her husband will be able to attend. In addition, the annual ICCE Bursary will be presented and we will bring you up to date regarding the events our club has planned for the balance of the year. The cash bar opens at 6pm and dinner will be served at 7pm. Pricing is as follows:

- adults, $32 each
- youth, 5 to 12 years old, $16 each
- children, under 5, no charge

The 2012 INL of NA calendars will be available for sale; the theme this year is the beautiful animals of Iceland. These calendars will make wonderful Christmas presents and cost only $10. Our ICCE Unity Forever Directory will also be available for members (no charge); this directory was produced for the recent INL of NA convention in Edmonton and is a very useful and informative guide for all things Icelandic! Tickets must be ordered using the attached order form; tickets will not be available at the door.

On Sunday, September 25th, the troupe "Say it Ain't So" from Markerville will present their most recent play "A Bench in the Sun". You won't want to miss the opportunity to see this marvellous play; the actors are Fred Anderson, Tim Nucombe and Carla Falk.

Coffee will be served beginning at 1 pm and the 90 minute play will begin at 2 pm. There is no charge for ICCE members while non-members will pay $10 at the door.

Both events will take place in the International Hall at the Dutch Canadian Centre, Home of the Scandinavians, 13312 142 Street, Edmonton.
